Your account has been debited due to a chargeback initiated by the cardholder's bank.

If you disagree with this debit and would like to dispute this chargeback, please mail/fax all LEGIBLE copies of the item(s) below, along with this letter, to the contact information above.

- Written rebuttal that specifically addresses the cardholder complaint.
- Copies of a signed sales draft.
- Copies of signed contract, invoice, guest folio, email, order form, rental agreement, delivery tracking log, etc, which will help document your rebuttal.

Note for Visa Chargebacks: If documents are submitted which do not remedy the chargeback the card issuing center can, and will, file arbitration directly against you, the merchant. This action forces you, the merchant, to accept the arbitration filing (withdraw) at a cost or to proceed with the arbitration case filing, which carries a higher cost than withdrawal. However, for small chargeback amounts you may choose to accept the chargeback rather than attempt a representment and incur additional fees. (No response is necessary to accept the chargeback). Merchants DO NOT have to represent chargebacks and may pursue outside collections against the cardholder.

Please respond no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of this letter. Failure to respond within the required time frame may forfeit your chargeback rights. The MC/Visa Chargeback Handling fee shown below may be in addition to any Chargeback fee assessed by your bank or agent.
